Twas the Night Before Christmas

Twas the night before Christmas
And all through the hall,
The students were dressed
At our Christmas Ball.
To the tunes of the band
That played there best,
The crowd oh so merry
Had no need for rest.
The evening was young
Our spirits were bright.
No one was ready
To say goodnight.
When all of a sudden
There rose such a fuss,
Everyone there stood
To see who was visiting us.
When in rode a feller
In a red and white suit.
All the ladies did giggle
Because they thought him quite cute.
He rode a blue bicycle
Which was quite a mistake,
The tires blew out
For the load was too great.
As he climbed off his bike
He danced round and round,
We were not all assured
To where he was bound.
The reason he came
Was about to be found,
He was in search of a queen
That he wanted to crown.
He found him a queen
And also a king,
Bobby Randall and Cheryl Hansen
Were the two honored beings.
As he started to leave
And was turning around,
He looked into his bag
And found another crown.
And much to his surprise
A young lady he did spy,
To our pretty Anna Smith
St. Nicholas gave an eye.
Finding her alone
He went out to steal,
A partner for her
Whose name was Brent Neal.
As he started to leave
His duties performed,
He danced out of sight
With a very last wish,
"Merry Christmas to all
And to all a goodnight!"
